

Assalaamu Alaikum R3!

How are you all this week? I hope you are all shining bright like the little stars that you all are! I know you're all staying safe in your homes but Ms Mahmood and I are still missing you sooooo much. So this week we are sending you a virtual hi-5 through the computer. Come on now, all of you put one hand in the air, countdown 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, and shout hiiiiigh fiiiive!!! Wow we felt the power of that hi-5 all the way from here. Thank you all very much!

I have been baking lots of tasty treats in the kitchen. This week I made chocolate brownies. I decorated the top of my brownies with pieces of Kinder Bueno, to make them even more chocolaty! Once they were done I shared them with my family! They were so delicious they finished them all in two days.

Ms Mehmoood and I have both been doing lots of PE with Joe Wicks on YouTube. Have any of you been doing PE with Joe?

Pupil Shoutouts!!!

Walaikum Assalam Latifa,

Thank you so much for your letter. We miss you too. Your letter made us giggle and put big smiles on our faces. Ms Mehmoood and I were so excited to read it. I am so glad to hear you are happy and safe. I love that you've got nail polish on, I hope it's really glittery. I'm really proud of you for helping mummy empty the dishwasher and for all the other little jobs you have been doing. I know your missing your friends and I'm sure they really miss you too. Maybe you could write them a letter or make them an 'I miss you' card. They might even write back to you!

Stay Wonderful Latifa!

Walaikum Assalam Maryam,

Thank you so much for your letter. I couldn't wait to read it and it made me feel so cheery. We miss you too. I'm so happy to hear you liked the virtual hug I sent you last week. This week I'm sending a virtual hi-5, so make sure to send it right back. You are such a talented artist and so I'm really glad that you've been enjoying art at home. Snap, I've been doing PE with Joe too. Thank you for all your duaas and Ameen to them all. I know your missing your friends. I'm sure they really miss you too. Maybe you could write them a letter or make them an 'I miss you' card. They might even write back to you!

Stay Arty Maryam!

The weather has been sunny and warm this week, so Ms Mehmoood has been doing some gardening as well.
