

Assalāmu ‘alaykum wa rah̄matullāhī wa barakātuh.

I pray that you are all well and remembering Allah (SWT) regularly, this may be by reading Qur’an or saying words of praise for Allah:

SubhanAllah
Alhumdulillah
Allahu Akbar

Remember Allah (SWT) tell us in the Qur’an in Surah 2 Verse 152:
So Remember Me, I will remember you. And be grateful to Me and do not deny Me.

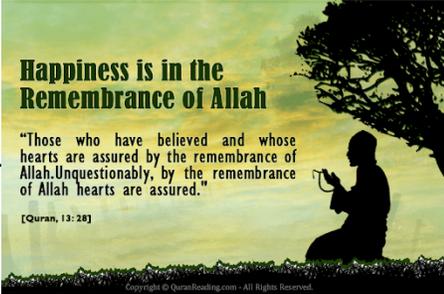

فَاذْكُرُونِي أَذْكَرْكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لِي وَلَا تَكْفُرُونِ

I know! How about a challenge between your family members?

Keep a tally chart ‘Who can remember Allah (SWT) the most from Monday to Sunday’ and share your results on:
parentconnect@iqra.slough.sch.uk

Who can remember Allah (SWT) the most challenge!

Family member/name		Alhumdulillah 	Allahu Akbar
Mother
Father

Ustaadh Zakariyya and I have been enjoying Mr Islam's 'Ramadan Series' we benefitted immensely, we hope you have been watching them too.

If you haven't watched them then we would highly recommend that you do, you can find the videos at:

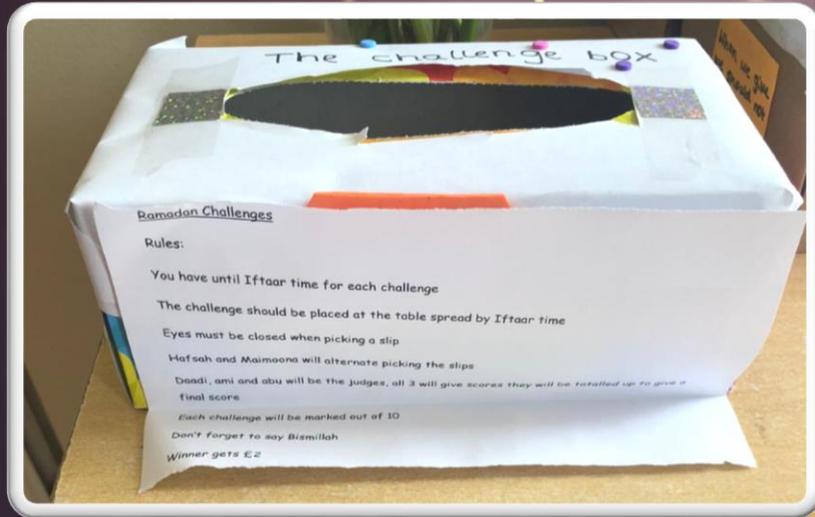

<https://www.iqraprimary.com/home-learning/>

Under Ramadan stories and activities, don't forget to give the videos a thumbs up if liked them. Keep it up Mr Islam we can't wait for part 3!

Remember stories serve as a reminder for us all, we should take lessons from them and implement them in to our own lives when we can.

Can anyone guess what the picture below shows?

You guessed right it a challenge box, not any challenge box but a Ramadan Challenge box!

For the month of Ramadan I placed 30 challenges linked to Ramadan, every morning one of my children have to pick a slip and they all have to carry out the challenge, winner gets a prize. The challenges my children carried out this week were:

Make fish platter for Iftaar

Make a Sadqaah box

Make some sandwiches for Sahoor

Make a fruit smoothie

Have a go at making your own Ramadan challenges for you siblings, share your ideas on parentconnect@iqra.slough.sch.uk