

Assalāmu ‘alaykum wa raḥmatullāhi wa barakātuh from the Arabic and RE team!

We continue to pray that you and your families are all well.

Can you believe that most of Ramadhan has finished and we only have just over a week left?! Don't worry, there is still plenty of time to make the most of your Ramadhan and continue adding to your good deeds.

Mr Malik said that he expects you to have won the challenge of who can remember Allah the most, and Mr Islam hopes that you are all continuing to benefit from his reminders at <https://www.iqraprimary.com/home-learning/> under Ramadhan stories and activities.

Aisha (RA) said “I asked the Messenger of Allah, If I catch Lailatul-Qadr (Night of Power), what Dua should I say?”
He (SAW) replied:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُوٌّ
تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ
فَاعْفُ عَنِّي

Allahumma
innaka ‘afuwun;
tuhibbul ‘afwa;
fa’fu ‘anni

We have a simple but effective task for you this week. We would like all of you to learn and continuously repeat the Dua for Laylatul-Qadr throughout the last 10 days of Ramadhan.

This Dua will remove all of the bad deeds that we have done and ensure that we finish Ramadhan with only good deeds.

Don't keep the Dua to yourself! Tell your family about it so that they can also benefit from it.

May Allah accept all of our prayers, fasting and good deeds. Aameen.

Remember to keep all of your teachers in your prayers. We really look forward to seeing you soon.

From Mr Malik, Mr Islam and Ustadh Zakariya

Aisha (RA) said "I asked the Messenger of Allah, If I catch Lailatul-Qadr (Night of Power), what Dua should I say?"
He (SAW) replied:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُوٌّ
تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ
فَاعْفُ عَنِّي

*O Allah!
You are Most-Forgiving;
you love to forgive;
so forgive me.*