

Florence Nightingale Answers

1. Fill in the gaps from the list at the bottom of the page.

Florence Nightingale was a nurse. She is still famous today because she has made nursing and hospitals much better.

Florence Nightingale was born in Italy in 1820. She has a big sister called Pop. They grew up in England.

As she grew up, she always wanted to help other people. In 1851, she went to Germany to train to be a nurse.

In 1854, she travelled to the Crimea to look after the soldiers in the army hospitals.

She worked very hard to make the hospitals clean and give the men food and medicine.

Florence Nightingale Answers

1. What is Florence Nightingale remembered for today? Tick one.

Making hospitals and nursing better

Becoming a nurse

Being born in Italy

Having a sister called 'Pop'

2. Who taught Florence Nightingale and her sister?

Their father taught Florence and Pop.

3. Find two words that describe hospitals when Florence was growing up.

1. horrible

2. dirty

4. Where did Florence train to be a nurse? Tick one.

France

Italy

Germany

England

5. Which countries were fighting against Russia in the Crimean War?

France, Britain and Turkey.

6. Why was Florence Nightingale asked to go to Crimea?

Florence Nightingale was asked to go to the Crimea to make the hospitals and medical care better.

Florence Nightingale Answers

1. Match up the sentences to describe how Florence improved the hospital at Scutari.

Florence and 38 nurses

the hospital and got rid of the rats.

First of all they scrubbed travelled to Crimea in November 1854.

The soldiers called Florence Nightingale

'The Lady of the Lamp'.

2. Why do we remember Florence Nightingale today?

We remember Florence Nightingale today for improving hospitals and how patients are cared for.