

Share your stories!

Calling all R3 readers! I miss reading with you so much. I have a question for you all. What books have you been reading? Where is your favourite place to read? Is it in the garden or is it in bed? Do any of your soft toys join you when you're reading?

This week I read 'The Very Hungry Caterpillar' and the 'Funnybones' to my little niece. She loves to get really cosy in bed and read upside down! I really enjoy reading these stories to her because these were two of my favourite books when I was a child.

Send in pictures of yourselves reading a book!

AND

Remember keep up the super home reading!

Assalamu Alaikum R3!

I hope you are all happy and healthy Insha'Allah. I'm really enjoying our online lessons and seeing all your adorable faces. So this week Ms Mehmood and I are sending you some well-earned claps. I want you all to clap for yourselves and clap for all of R3. You have all been working so hard and we are so proud of you.

This week I've been feeling a little peckish, so I made pitta bread pizza. It's so easy and only has 2 steps, so you can HAVE A GO too!

Step 1- Place the pitta bread on a tray and decorate with your favourite toppings.

Step 2- Bake the pizza for 4-5 minutes.

What have you all been up to this week? Have you been doing any exercise? Have you built or made anything super? Have you written or drawn something special? Share all your amazing work with me by sending your pictures, messages and letters to the email below on MONDAYS. I promise I'll reply back to you all!

Email: parentconnect@iqra.slough.sch.uk

Remember to keep up your good Ramadan deeds!