TASK 1

Tier words

Say each word after me

rebellion dynasty dissolution nobles vagabond coronation treason monarch pottage catholic protestant daub thatched Tudor Stuart wattle popular reign women important famous position
 century history

On the next page, stick in the tier words in the middle of a double page spread. Write the meaning of any words you already know in pencil or a handwriting pen. Underline the word neatly with correct colour. Here is an example of a finished tier word page:

As we go through this topic, you will learn the meanings of the other words. You will come back to this page and write the meaning in green pen to show that it is something new you've learnt.

Knowledge Harvest

This term we will be learning about the Tudors.

After completing your holiday homework, you should be able to now write out three pieces of information that you already know about this topic.

Why did Henry VIII have six wives?

Date:

LO: Knowledge Harvest

Remember to underline using a ruler and a pencil

TASK 2

Knowledge harvest
What do you already know about the Tudors?

Stick this in the middle of your page. Using a ruler, you will brainstorm what you already know about the Tudors. Write down as many interesting facts as you know. Here's an example of excellent presentation:

What did you come up with?

- What I already know?
- What I want to know? (Next slide)

Task 3

Write down 3 questions you would like to investigate about The Tudors:

Neatly, stick this on the next page.

In table groups, discuss things you would like to know in this unit to expand your knowledge on the Tudors. Write them down as questions. Here's another example of neat presentation.
